MOTION: Moved by Alex Sinclair and seconded by Eve Goldberg that the agenda be accepted as amended. Motion Carried.

Jani Lauzon read the land acknowledgement. Alex Sinclair read the Folk Music Ontario Equality Statement and James Keelaghan performed an opening song.

2. Approval of 2016 AGM Minutes

Draft minutes of the October 22, 2016 AGM of Folk Music Ontario were distributed online via the Folk Music Ontario website and via paper copy during the meeting.

MOTION: Moved by Preetam Sengupta and seconded by Max Merrifield that the 2016 AGM Minutes be approved. Motion Carried.

3. President's Report

The President's Report was presented in the printed 2017 conference program distributed to all conference delegates as well as verbally presented by Katharine Partridge.

4. Executive Director's Report

The Executive Director's Report was presented in the printed 2017 conference program distributed to all conference delegates as well as verbally presented by Alka Sharma, FMO Executive Director. The verbal presentation included:

- Thanks to funders and to staff and Copperworks and everyone else who helped with the conference

5. Treasurer's Report and Audited Financial Statements

The Treasurer's Report from Jan Cody reviewed the audited financial statements included in the printed 2017 conference program and sent by earlier email to all members. The verbal report included:

- Had an active fiscal year with a lot of new activities, which is reflected in both expenses and new revenue (mainly from grants)
- FMO's accumulated deficit has decreased from its original $104,000 to $78,000
- Board focus is on revenue generation including membership. New benefits will be offered. In 2017, a webinar was held for members only.
- The Deficit Reduction Plan has three main strategies: to generate new revenue and diversify current revenue streams (2017 new grants, new sponsors); to grow revenue by increasing member value (eg. Webinar); to continue reviewing any and all expenses (a tech audit underway)
- The year end statements are reviewed

Member questions:

Confirmation by the board that the accumulated deficit has dropped overall, though the year did not record a decrease.

The expense of Ottawa's conference was noted. The board and ED confirmed Toronto location is cheaper due to travel savings for participants and the hotel's airport location "Is the board worried about the deficit?" The board spoke of ongoing work and encouraging results. Also, the creation of specific committees and a task force to increase efforts, including value for members.

"While the board cuts administration costs please continue to invest in staff." The board agreed.

MOTION: Moved by Malcolm Byard and seconded by Scott Merrifield that the Audited Financial Statements be accepted. Motion Carried.
